APPLICATION OF PRICES

1. Vacant lots

Barwon Water does not charge vacant lots.

2. Volumetric sewerage charges

Volumetric sewerage charges are not levied on residential customers.

For non-residential properties, the sewer volume is calculated by multiplying the water volume by the designated discharge factor for that property description, as set out in the table below.

3. Trade waste categorisation

Barwon Water will categorise each trade waste customer into one of 5 different risk management categories according to the trade waste volume produced, the goods and chemicals stored/used on site, the customer's compliance records and the characteristics of the effluent.

4. Contravention charges

A type 1 discharge contravention occurs where a company deliberately dilutes their trade waste flow to reduce the likelihood of a non — compliance. A type 2 discharge contraventions is where a customer has not remedied a specific non-compliance.

5. Miscellaneous fees and charges

Information statements – provision of a property information statement as required under section 158 of the Water Act 1989.

Sale of meter – the supply of a meter for the connection of a new property or to replace a damaged meter.

Water tapping - the provision of an under pressure water tapping into the water main.

Meter connection – the installation of the meter to the property by Barwon Water.

Sewer application – application for the processing of sewer connection or alteration.

Meter reading (special meter read) – fee imposed per meter reading to provide water usage information to a specified date. Generally provided on application for property sale.

Meter reading (tenant meter read) – this fee provides for the recording of two meter readings, when a tenancy commences and then on termination of the tenancy arrangement.
